

Ballarat Writers Inc. presents the

Southern Cross Literary Competition

The Southern Cross Literary Competition is now accepting Short Stories of up to 3500 words. The judge for 2013 is award-winning Melbourne author Toni Jordan. There will be a short-list of three stories and each will receive feedback from the judge.

Prize: The winning entry will receive $1500 (AUD) in prize money

Closing Date: 30 October 2013

Entry fee: $20 per story

To enter: Visit www.ballaratwriters.com for terms and entry

Results will be announced Thursday 5 December at 7.30pm at the Ballarat Mechanics Institute Library. Shortlisted entrants will be notified in advance.

The Southern Cross Literary Competition is a biennial event run by Ballarat Writers Inc. It has been providing opportunities for emerging writers since 1988.

Toni Jordan's debut novel, Addition, was listed for the Barbara Jefferis Award and for the Miles Franklin in 2009, and has been published in sixteen countries. Her second novel, Fall Girl, was published in 2010 and her latest, Nine Days won the 2013 Indie Award for best fiction. Toni's articles have appeared in The Sunday Age, The Sun-Herald and The Monthly, and she also teaches creative writing. Toni lives in Melbourne.